

CARNIVAL STUDY DAYS FOR YEAR 1&2

FOR EU Bac, A-LEVEL & IB CANDIDATES

FEBRUARY 2016

ACCESSLEARNING

COURSE TARGETS

The purpose of this format is to provide EU Bac, A-Level and IB candidates in both Year 1 and Year 2 with sessions which are supervised, structured, intensive and flexibly scheduled. The four-hour session is designed to support revision strategies for those who may have fallen behind in coursework and/or those in the early or late stages of the Extended Essay (EE), completion of Internal Assessments (IAs) and A-Level and EU Bac project completion.

THE FOCUS WILL BE ON APPROACHES TO SUCCESSFUL INDEPENDENT PROGRESS ON:

- Getting started with your EE and other project work
- Support in completing IAs, other project work
- Design a revision plan for the remaining weeks before external exams in May 2016
- Exam preparation and exam taking techniques
- Using rubrics and command words strategically
- Active strategies for engaged learning
- Strategies for coping with procrastination
- Concentrating for long periods of time
- Individualized coaching time for each participant*
- Stress management techniques

Please note that the aim the coaching is to provide structure and supervision for project completion and any guidance given must be in accordance with the External Exam Board regulations.*
